- 1.2 The Children’s Internet Protection Act, enacted December 21, 2000, requires recipients of federal technology funds to comply with certain Internet filtering and policy requirements. Schools and libraries receiving funds for Internet access and/or internal connection services must also meet the Internet safety policies of the Protecting Children in the 21st Century Act (PCICA) that addresses the broader issues of electronic messaging, disclosure of personal information of minors, and unlawful online activities.

It must protect against access by adults and minors to visual depictions that are obscene, involve child pornography, or are harmful to minors. In addition to the filtering system that is incorporated with the Internet service, the School District subscribes to a content filtering system, on all computers that access the Internet, which is compliant with CIPA and PCICA.
- 2.2 Access to Inappropriate Material
 - (a) To the extent practical, Technology Protection Measures (or “Internet filters”) shall be used to block or filter Internet content or other forms of electronic communications, access to inappropriate information. Specifically, as required by the Children’s Internet Protection Act, blocking shall be applied to visual and textual depictions of material deemed obscene [as defined in section 1460 of title 18, United States Code], child pornography [as defined in section 2256 of title 18, United States Code], or to any material deemed harmful to minors [Defined in section 231 of title 47, United States Code].

(b) Subject to staff supervision, technology protection measures may be disabled or, in the case of minors, minimized only for bona fide research or other lawful purposes.

(c) Any attempt to bypass, defeat, or circumvent the Technology Prevention Measures is punishable as a violation of this policy and of the Acceptable Use Policies.

2.3 Inappropriate Network Usage

(a) To the extent practical, steps shall be taken to promote the safety and security of users of the Johnstonville Elementary School District online computer network when using electronic mail, chat rooms, blogging, instant messaging, online discussions and other forms of direct electronic communications. Without limiting the foregoing, access to such means of communication is strictly limited by the Acceptable Use Policies.

(b) Specifically, as required by the Children’s Internet Protection Act, prevention of inappropriate network usage includes: (1) unauthorized access, including so-called ‘hacking,’ and other unlawful activities; and (2) unauthorized disclosure, use, and dissemination of personal identification information regarding minors.
